2. Cooperating with Plougmann Vingtoft

- 2.1. It is our policy to send a short written confirmation of the acceptance of the services to be performed, including the scope of the work, the delivery time and our best estimate of the costs. The estimated costs may change if the scope of the work and/or the requested services is redefined.

- 2.2. As our client, we expect you to give us all information which is relevant and necessary for the performance of our services to you. We have no formal requirements as to how you provide the information to us, this may be done in writing or verbally, for instance during a meeting where the scope of the services is discussed.
- 2.3. The only exception to paragraph 3.2 is when you instruct us to close a case, i.e. by abandoning an application or allowing it to lapse. In such cases, we always require written instructions from you. A written confirmation from us to you acknowledging your verbal instruction to this effect can also serve as a written instruction.
- 2.4. We will monitor any time limits in your portfolio handled by us, given by regional and national authorities, and, if relevant, we will in due course apply for extensions of time limits, if possible.
- 2.5. Please note that we will often need your assistance to observe a time limit: you must therefore provide us with all relevant information in due time. Consequently, if we do not receive your instructions and/or relevant information in time to enable us to meet the time limit, we cannot accept liability for any resulting loss of rights.
- 2.6. In most states worldwide, when representing you before the national authorities we work through local attorneys. We strive to cooperate only with hand-picked and well-reputed colleagues. Our cooperation with the local attorneys on your behalf is always built on good faith, but we do not accept liability for any failure on their behalf.

- 4.2. Our invoices for ongoing services will be sent on a regular basis and at least on a monthly basis, or when we have completed significant tasks.
- 4.3. All fees and expenses are exclusive value added tax (VAT), which will be charged where appropriate according to applicable law.
